Modern working life rarely allows for clear thinking, creativity and meaningful conversation.

Change walls, screens and fluorescent lighting for sky, trees and fresh air.

Connection without the login.

“Our team still talks about the experience we had... it was special.”

Aled John
Deputy Managing Director, FT Strategies

“We enjoyed the dinner so much, it was incredible... we really had a good experience with Woodfire Camping.”

...stay the night.

Why cut it short? Allow your team to properly slow down and reconnect with one another around the campfire.

Take your time over a three-course moonlit evening meal and then some star bathing - we have some of the best Dark Skies in the South of England and a great telescope.

A comfortable, cosy night is followed by hot showers, breakfast and a big game of rounders to finish.

- large canvas touareg tents with windows, beds and bedding, blankets, hot water bottles, lighting, tables and benches
- Paying bar with local beers and a selection of wines and cocktails available.
- Optional add-ons: silent disco/ acoustic live music/ s'more kits /bespoke

From £255pp [sample price based on 35 guests sharing four to a tent and a one-course lunch on Day 1]
